We have just put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth, of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a sin-gle instance to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who use it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of the highest commendation of its magical effects and medicinal virtues. We speak in this matter "vohat we do know" after ten years experience and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes offer the Syrvey is administered.

THOUSANDS OF CASES It not only relieves the child from pain, but in vigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidi ity, and gives tone and energy to the whole sys ity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It was, therefore, essential in the first place to disenchant well-known letter addressed by the Hon. William L. Yancey to Mr. Slaughter, under date of June that invaluable right.

"The remedy of the South is in a diligent organization of her true men for prompt resistance to the next aggression. It must come in the nature of things. No national party can save us; I sectional party can ever do it. But if we could do as our fathers did—organize—committees of safety all over the cotton States, (and it is only in them that we can hope for any effective movement)—we shall fire the Southern heart, instruct the Southern mind, give courage to each other and at the PROPER MOMENT, by one organized con certed action, we can precipitate the cotton States int

According to this view, a national party, be cause of its very nationality, cannot be expected to save the South, as Mr. Yancey understands salvation. Just as little can a sectional party hope to accomplish this end, because a Southern se tional party must needs be too weak, to carry its purposes. In either event, therefore, dis union is the only ultimate remedy, as it is the only and the inevitable result contemplated by

The successive stages reached in the initial steps of this movement will be discerned in the following extracts from the Mobile Mercury of April, 1859, reflective of the disunion senti ment cherished by a portion of the Southern De

"The times are now ripe for the organization of a political movement in the slaveholding States, irrespective of course of all old party designations; and there are peculiar reasons why such a movement should be undertaken now and here a movement should be undertaken now and here. Indeed, we are credibly informed that conferences have already been held by leading patriotic gentlemen in this city, of all parties, and the plane of a Southern organization have been set on foot and almost matured preparatory to action. We earnestly hope the good work may go on, and speedily. The country, we repeat, is ripe for the movement, and, if judiciously inaugurated, it will sweep over the land with a force that no oppositi will be able to check. We therefore caution of friends in the country everywhere, to be prepared for it, and to keep themselves free from all entang-ling-alliances which may hinder them from joining in

In the 'following October, the Charleston Mer cury put forth the subjoined programme, by which the "preliminaries" could be arranged:

"1. That the Legislatures of the Southern States, at their next meetings, distinctly declare the rights of the South, as plainly deducible from the Dred Scott case, accompanied with a resolu-tion that they will vote for no one for the Presi-dency or Vice Presidency of the United States who does not plainly and distinctly affirm and support them without non-commitalism, dodging or equivocation.
"2. Should the Charleston Convention declare and affirm these rights, and nominate candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency who dis tinctly support them, then the Southern States will support such candidates, and should they be elected, proof will be afforded that the South may continue with safety in the Confederacy. dency and Vice Presidency, thus fairly nominated by the Charleston Convention, be defeated in the Presidential election, and the Republican or Abolition party succeed in electing their candidates, then the Southern Legislatures, as soon thereafter as they shall successively assemble together, should recall their Senators and Representatives from the Congress of the United States, and invite the co-operation of their sister Southern States to devise means for their common safety. But should the Charleston Convention fuse to declare and affirm the rights of the South as deducible from the Dred Scott case, or nomi-nate candidates who will not affirm and suppor them, then let the Southern States non and support candidates of their own, plainly and faithfully reflecting and supporting their rights. "5 Should the Southern States succeed in electing their sectional candidates, thus nominated, of cours they will deem it a sufficient proof FOR THE PRESENT of their safety in the Union.

"6. But should the Southern States fail in electing their sectional candidates thus nominated then let the same course be pursued as has been

The prestige of national parties being undermined, and the formation of a new Confederation having been concerted, it next became necessary for the originators of the movement to devise an expedient by which the Democratic party might be denationalized, their hold on the Southern mind weakened, and their power so destroyed as to render them an easy prey to the Republican party, upon whose success it was arranged, according to these historical probabilities, to sused, was the programme. As the paradoxical nature of such an enterprise might well inspire a measure of incredulity with regard to the authenticity of the grounds on which it is imputed, we stated that it would be our purpose to-day to lay before our readers some of the evidences—for which we are indebted to the National Intelligencer—which betray the existence of a disloyal sentiment at the South, if they do not point to the formation of a deliberate conspiracy on the part of a few against the integrity of the Union. ty of the Union.

How truly this programme was fulfilled, so far the following resolutions, passed by the Legislan the 25th of February 1860:

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama, in General Assembly convened, That the State of Alabama n affirming the right of any State to secede from the Confederacy, whenever, in her judgment, such a step is demanded by the honor, interests and safety of her people, is not unmindful of the fac the South of this illusion with regard to the Democratic or any other National party. Prophecy has already been onverted into fact. It is to the consequence that we turn our attention. From the Charleston (S. C.) News. "It may be asked what hopes have we from the Presidential struggle. On this point we have not time to-day to dilate in full. Our hopes are higher than any to be founded on a mere Presiden tial result. The contest will leave the South united as a party, united as a section, united in the purpose of right and self-defense, and ready, if ever inder aroused excitement and common indigna-ion, to meet the real sectional issue, brought up under a forced sectional array, to solve it by either submission to Black Republican rule at Washing on, or a resort to her own self-government in reparate and independent form."

The Montgomery (Alabama) Mail, a Breckin ridge Democratic journal, contains the following programme of operations in its number of July

"THE WAY TO DISSOLVE THE UNION .- Run three Presidential tickets against Lincoln, thereby giving Lincoln the best chance for election. That ticket is Breckinridge and

If such is the language of certain Breckinridge ournals, the terms employed by some among his most distinguished and ardent supporters are equally significant. We cite from a letter of the Hon. Lawrence M. Keitt, of South Carolina, under date of July 18, 1860, as follows:

"And how can the South be saved from injury if the Republican party succeeds in the coming Presidential election? I answer only by dissolving the Government immediately. If this party succeeds, loyalty to the Union would be treason to the South.— And will the South be divided upon this issue?then let the same course be pursued as has been suggested in case the Democratic party be defeated with candidates standing on the rights of the South, and the Black Republican or Abolition candidates be elected.

To similar purport ex-Governor Hebert, of Lou iana, writes as follows, under date of July 25th

"The secession of the Southern delegation a Charleston and Baltimore, upon a principal so vita to us, and the final nomination of Messrs. Breck ridge and Lane upon this principle, prove that ne South has at last come to her senses, and open declared her determination to accept the reponsibilities forced upon her. Mr. William E. Martin, a delegate to the Rich ond Convention from the State of South Caro ina, holds in a recent letter the following lan guage, which is remarkable for its frankness in re gard to the effects likely to result from the elec don of either a Democratic or a Republican Presi dent. (The reader will draw his own inference from Mr. Martin's silence in regard to the election of a President pledged to a "Constitutiona Union:")

"The people of the South are prepared to ac with a dignity worthy of the great issues and thei own bright history. They know the crisis is inevitable. The election of a Democrat may sound a hollow truce, or the success of a Black Republican may at once precipitate it upon us. In either event, it is only a question of time."

To these add the following declarations contain ed in a recent letter from Ex-Speaker Orr, o South Carolina, another of Mr. Breekinridge's supporters, and heretofore known for his conserva

ive predilections: "Lincoln and Hamlin, the Black Republica ominees, will be elected in November next, and the South will then decide the great question whether they will submit to the domination of Black Republican rule—the fundamental principle f their organization being an open, undisguised and declared war upon our social elieve that the honor and safety of the South, that contingency, will require the prompt secessi of the slaveholding States from the Union, and ailing then to obtain from the free States addiional and higher guarantees for the protection our rights and property, that the seceding States should proceed to establish a new government. But, whilst I think such would be the imperative duty iate any scheme having for its object the separat date any scheme having for its object the separate secession of South Carolina. We confess that, under ordinary circumstance we should find it difficult to explain the hot haste with which these gentlemen come forward to assure us that their candidates are already beaten and that Mr. Lincoln is already virtually elected One would suppose that a decent respect for the listinguished gentlemen who accepted the nomnation of the seceding Democracy would preserv their friends from the incivility of vieing with their adversaries in the amiable office of thu whistling them down the wind" at the very all his opinions; for it is well known that the honthreshold of the canvass. And it is this singular lacrity for defeat which, we suppose, has begot en the suspicion in certain minds, that the antic nated result is not unwelcome to some, if it ca e made an available means to disunion ends. For ourselves, we prefer to accept these frank ad issions in simple evidence of the intelligenand sincerity of those who make them, and, with ut venturing at all to question the accuracy o hese predictions in regard to Mr. Breekinridge's Mr. Crittenden, declined the association. For f Bell and Everett do not share in any such despondency with regard to the election of their andidates. The deep and deepening popular sympathy enlisted in support of the cause inaugueated by the Constitutional Union Party, already by but too well." We quote from a speech deliver affords the most animating incentives to persever ng effort, and invites, we think, the cordial co-operation of all in whom the love of country is su perior to the love of party.

[A voice, 'Yes, he is.'] He ought not to be. He belongs to a tribe of faithful, devoted Union men—the tribe of Kentuckians. He must have been seduced away from the path of his duty far from the path in which we have passed in a history of those issues that we have passed in a history of those issues that the impulses of his blood ought to carry him, if he has become a disunionist. This is the party which we may entertain apprehensions that it will Many of its members are noble spirited gentlemen. It is only upon this one subject they have been misled or have misled themselves. They have been betrayed into this delusion. In all other respects they are generous and of high character, but the spirit of disunion prevails among them, and it is only the more dangerous when entertained by such men. They openly talk about it, they write about it, they invite it. They have rocked themselves into the belief that the Governnent must be dissolved. They want to meet the magined necessity at once; they want to dissolve the Union immediately, to precipitate the people into it. The people, forsooth, are not so far-see-ing as they are. The leaders anticipate overt acts on the part of the Republicans, and want now to effect a revolution in the cotton States, and establish a new Government. These sentiments pervade the South, and make up the body and soul of the party which has nominated our fellow-citizen, Mr. Breckinridge, as its candidate for the Presidency. Is there no danger that by electing him you would give new energy to that destructive impulse, and new power to this disunion sentiment, and to the cause of disunion? Mr. Brinridge himself follows in the lead. He is and parcel of the great party. You see this his nomination and acceptance of it, and can hen oresee with clearness the disasters that would follow his success. Possibly it may be the policy of those who nominated him to unite old Kentucky to this new Confederacy. Old Kentucky is quite an important State in this Union. She is the heart of it-she is the heart of it. [Immense enhusiasm.] To obtain her concurrence is of the greatest possible consequence to those who fancy that they can make a Republic in the South more glorious and more prosperous than the great Re public of which we now form a part. Such hav-Such have been their plans for a long time. If they can bring about that union, if they can bring over old Kentucky and make her an ally of their scheme for the dismemberment of this confederacy, and the erection of a seperate Republic, i would be a matter of very little consequence whether Mr. Breekinridge was elected or not.— They would rather have Kentucky for their ally than Mr. Breckinridge for their President. There is no disunionist in the South who would not make that choice. I fear this. I am a Union man, and articularly jealous of everything that threatens he existence of the Union That Mr. Crittenden did not speak without raonal presumptious in thus defining the conjectural motives which induced the leaders of thi movement to select a Kentuckian as their standard bearer, might be inferred from the intelligence and the integrity which that venerable statesman and patriot brings to the formation and expression of orable loyalty of Kentucky to the Union has ometimes been objected to her as a source of re proach by those who have not always been able to ecure from her a ready indorsement of their ex treme views and measures. As the Southern people never authorized the language held by these officious gentlemen. it would be more modest in them, as well as more discreet, to take upon their own shoulders the onus of that discredit in which they seek to involve their whole section. We do not pause to point, in addition, to the folly of publishing "resolves," which according to Mr. Rhett, are regarded at the North only as "any other hearsay." If such demonstrations are so useless in that quarter, we venture to pronounce them doubly aseless, in the name of all gallant and loyal Southrons, who will be under the necessity of ever recurring to the brave "resolutions" passed by any disunion Convention, in order to ascertain when their rights have been invaded, and what shall be the mode and measure of their redress.

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous com plaints, but they have far less power to with stand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which de-cimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause. One quarter of all our people are scrofulous;

their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in

It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and Skin Diseases, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Rheumatism, Syphilitic and Mercubial Dis-EASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, all Complaints arising from Vitia-TED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. For Vice President, EDW'D EVERETT

The attention of the reader is invited to an article in another page, which proves, beyond a doubt, the designs of the Yancey-Breckinridge party. Read and ponder well.

OF MASSACHUSETTS.

Yancey's Great Speech-One of the Issues.

Our readers will remember that WM, L YANCEY-the Aaron Burr of the present day; the destroyer of the National Democratic party, and the founder of the Breckinridge faction-addressed a large crowd at Memphis lately. He went there, in part, to defend himself against the various charges made against him, and especially that of disunion. of "the great speech," which great affair has been published in pamphlet form at the Yeoman office, as a Breckinridge campaign document. It is headed thus: "THE ISSUES INVOLVED IN THE PRESIDENTIAL CONTEST."

We have read the speech with much attention. It is an ordinary disunion speech, remarkable for nothing except its length and remarkable for nothing except its length and avowed creed, as solemnly defined by the companies of 1850, retifiedly the c its shallowness. It is not calculated to create an exalted idea of the intellectual powers of Mr. Yancey. It is a very silly tribute to Mr. Yancey's nauseating vanity. It abounds ments which nine-tenths of the Democracy in Miss Nanceyisms, Yanceyisms, bluster, of Kentucky will respond to with enthusi bravado and self-conceit. We judge from its perusal that Mr. Yancey is a lady's man of faultless exterior, and that he would make an excellent Claude Melnotte for a country resolutions. Mr. Stevenson will be a canditheatre. In politics he is a fillibustering fop, who is on the constant look out for some Yankee to tread on his coat tail. He is a well as the whole Democratic press of Kenman of luxuriant hair and imagination, who tucky, with two or three exceptions, wil has been appointed by Yancey to watch over stand upon this great national Democratic the interest of the South. He necessarily platform. Non-interference is an establish exists in a constant state of alarm; his eyes the Kentucky Democracy heartily respond in fine frenzy rolling, on the watch for depreto it. It is willing to abide by the Dred Scott decision, which holds that slavery

But we commenced this article for the purorator on one of "the issues involved in the Presidential contest"-disunion.

In reference to the celebrated Slaughter letter, Mr. Yancey, in his speech, as published at the Yeoman office, says:

"THERE IS NOT A WORD IN THAT MENT IN IT, I DISAVOW.

Now that Kentuckians may understand what sentiments Mr. Yancey still holds-on the all absorbing question of Union or disunion-and refuses to "disayow," we here republish the Slaughter letter in full:

Dear Sir-Your kind favor of the 15th is such a process, it is in a diligent organization of her true men for prompt resistance to not now ask for further Congressional protect and it is only in them that we can hope for ern heart, instruct the Southern mind, give courage to each other, and at the proper moment, by gomery organ of Mr. Yancey] under the ers," who, keeping up their old party rela-Southern issues paramount, and will influence parties, legislatures and statesmen. I nave no time to enlarge, but to suggest,

Signed, W. L. YANCEY. To JAS. S. SLAUGHTER, ESQ.

Here is an explicit declaration of Yancey as to the mode by which the cotton States could be precipitated into a REVOLUTION. Here is an express announcement that in Mr. Yancey's opinion "no national or sectional" party could save the South? In this letter he boldly advises the formation of "committees of safery" all over the cotton States. No candid mind can deny that this Slaughter letter is a disunion document.

In the face of all this the central organ o the Breckinridge party in this State-the chief editor of which is a member of the Breckinridge State Central Committee, has published, in pamphlet form, the Memphis speech of Yancey, in which he re-asserts every sentiment in the Slaughter letter.

Is not this giving aid "and comfort" to the secession design of Wm. L. Yancey?

Let it be remembered that Wm. L. Yancey, who now proposes a plan by which "we shall fire the Southern mind, give courage to each other, and at the proper moment by one organized concerted action, we can precipitate the cotton States into revolution," is now making speeches for Mr. Breckinridge by the request of the National committee of the Secession party. He therefore speaks by authority, and it must be regarded that the rep. resentatives of that party, like Mr. Yancey, indorse every sentiment of the Slaughter letter. What further proof is needed of the dis union tendencies of the Breckinridge party

THE CONSISTENCY OF A YANCEYITE.

The editor of the Commonwealth is re ublishing the old article which appeared in the Statesman, last spring, but which was withdrawn the succeeding week. The Statesman held, during the gubernatorial canvass of last year, the position it now has in the Territorial question.—Lex. Statesman, 24 Aug., 1859.

Here is "the old article 'which we repub lished, and' which appeared in the Statesman last spring:

"There can be no doubt that the Demo cratic party in Kentucky is opposed to the intervention of Congress for any purpose or for the exercise of any power over slavery in the Territories."—Lex. Statesman, May 6th,

And which the editor of the Statesman says was "withdrawn the succeeding week." We have the Statesman of the succeeding withdrawal of the article or a disavowal of the sentiments contained therein. 4. We are not satisfied merely to overshee our school; we wish to bring each pupil at all times under our own immediate eye and personal influence. We wish to render our own labor more productive, by bringing our experience and skill to bear directly upon every member of our class.

5. In fine, though large public schools have their advantages, yet we feel as advantages and as Chrisadvantages, yet we feel, as educators and as Christians, that it would be better for humanity and more acceptable to God, to educate wall, than to neutralize our influence by attempting to educate

We propose, therefore, to limit our classes after the present term, which expired in June, to one half the present number. While this is a great sacrifice, in a pecuniary view, we hope that the increased good we may effect may secure for us a greater reward in the gratitude of our pupils and in the ap probation that comes from God. We particularly request that all applications for admission be made early; session commences Sepember 17th.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOS-TETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BIT-TERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bit-ters for the last year amounted to over a halfmillion bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the prepara-tion, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague a Godsend to regions where lever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach detangements and general debility; acting under rangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians because it is agreeable to the taste as cians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhosa, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hos-tetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, observe that our autograph signature is on the label.
